...Lady Starck, the Captain's wife, tells stories

Description Lady Starck, the Captain's wife, takes us on a walking tour through the 19th century town with wooden houses and tells about the town's maritime history as well as of the families and houses of her acquaintances and neighbours. The tour contains approx. ten stops with partly dramatized features.

Duration approx. 1½ hrs

Length approx. 3 km

Good to know

The old town's street plan still retains traces of the type of rectangular planning popular during the Renaissance. Empire style merchant's houses are the icing on the cake. The beach fronts were previously inhabited by the shipowners and other wealthy citizens.
